IN DEADLOCK ON HANDLING OF B.C. CARGO

Freighter Loaded at Vancouver Remains Tied Up As Unions Battle

TWENTY SHIPS STILL AWAITING HANDLERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1 (AP).—Edward F. McGrady, assistant secretary of labor, dispatched from Washington, D.C., in an effort to untangle the complicated Pacific Coast maritime labor situation, was expected here tomorrow. He was in Los Angeles today gathering information.

The situation here remained deadlocked tonight over the question of handling by stevedores of British Columbia cargo and release of the freighter Point Clear, tied up since June because she carries cargo for strike-bound British Columbia ports.

ALL BUT ONE AGREE

The Maritime Federation of the Pacific announced tonight that all marine unions, except the district International Longshoremen's Association, had agreed to unconditional release of the Point Clear. I.L.A. district officials said if anyone was to release the ship, they and not the federation would do so, according to the federation's statement.

Twenty ships are tied up here, 1,400 suspended stevedores are idle, and longshore hiring halls were unable to furnish more than 1,200 of the 3,763 men requisitioned to handle cargo.

WILL NOT BE REINTEGRATED

Thomas G. Plant, president of the waterfront employers' association, said the 1,400 suspended stevedores would not be reinstated until the Point Clear is released. Longshore officials replied that reinstatement of the men would have relieved the waterfront labor shortage and permitted working of most of the twenty idle ships.

FEAR FOR SHIP IF SEA RISES

Liner Rotterdam in Exposed Position—Attempts to Refloat Vessel Fail

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Oct. 1 (AP).—Battered by more than one half day of pounding on a coral reef of the luxury liner Rotterdam with 276 men still aboard was feared tonight to be ready to fall victim to the first stiff wind that might whip up the Caribbean Sea around the Morant Cays.

With only a gentle swell running, the easy lift and fall already had opened up holes in the big cruise boat's hull, and Kingston nautical men returning from her side today said she would be in "grave danger" should roughen seas slam her more heavily against the sharp coral.

IS LEAKING BADLY

The 24,140-ton craft, flagship of the Holland-American Line, was leaking in four compartments, and every one of its 450 passengers and 250 of his crew. They were landed here today, the passengers a cheerful group of holiday-makers who looked on the wreck as more a lark than anything else.

The Kingston salvage ship Killeberg was straining to haul her off the ledge, with no success. The freighter Midas, called 500 miles from Curacao, was expected to take off all the Rotterdam's mechanical staff tonight and reach here with them tomorrow.

FACES CHARGE OF ROBBING WIDOW

Insurance Broker Accused of Stealing Dividend Cheque From Mrs. Will Rogers

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP).—An insurance broker, entrusted with the business of theatrical celebrities for two years, was arrested today charged with stealing a $15,242 dividend cheque from the widow of Will Rogers.

The prisoner, John J. Kemp, fifty-one, with office on Fifth Avenue, was known as "the actors' insurance man." His sales were so large he was an honor member of the "Million Dollar Club" of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. He also is a member of The Lambs Club, The Friars and other well-known clubs.

"I've expected this for seven years," he was quoted as saying by detectives, who said his peculations from scores of well-known persons would aggregate $400,000.

New York Loan Is Met by Province With Federal Aid

BRITISH COLUMBIA met a provincial short-term loan of 1922 maturing at New York on October 1, with the aid of Federal funds. In response to the application of the British Columbia Government, the Dominion placed $1,611,000 at the disposal of the Province to meet the payment. This was done yesterday, British Columbia Treasury officials confirmed.

LABOR HEADS NOT AS ONE

George Lansbury Reaffirms His Willingness to Resign From Leadership

BRIGHTON, England, Oct. 1 (AP).—The question of sanctions against Italy in the event of an Italo-Ethiopian war, today led to violent controversy between national leaders in the first session of the Labor Party convention.

A bitter debate was climaxed by George Lansbury's reaffirmation of his offer to quit as the party leader in the House of Commons. He called his position "intolerable."

PERSONAL SUPPORT

Although the vote to be taken tomorrow is expected to show the party overwhelmingly in favor of using sanctions against Italy, if necessary, Lansbury may not be required to quit, despite his expressed pacifist convictions.

That was indicated by the manner in which the convention suddenly united in a spectacular personal tribute to the party leader. Lansbury himself hinted that he might continue as leader, declaring the subject of the sanctions debate "is not the overwhelming, fundamental question that brings us together."

"I want everyone to understand," said Lansbury, "that it is bitter and difficult for me to stand here and publicly repudiate this big fundamental policy (for sanctions). I agree it is quite intolerable that you should have a man speaking as a leader who disagrees fundamentally with issues of this kind."

A FALSE STEP

Sir Stafford Cripps, once regarded as the party's choice to succeed Lansbury and also one of its leading prospects for Premier in the event of a Labor triumph at the polls, was booed when he criticized the League of Nations as "nothing but the tool of satiated imperialistic power."

Sir Stafford urged the nation to shun any action against Premier Mussolini which would put British and Italian workmen face to face in any death struggle on a battlefield.

UPRISING SEEN IN VENEZUELA

Aged and Strong-Armed Dictator Reported to Be Near Death

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Oct. 1 (AP).—Persistent rumors that General Juan Vincent Gomez, strong-armed dictator of Venezuela for more than twenty-five years, lay on his deathbed at Caracas were strengthened today by word reaching here that the Venezuelan frontier force at the Moruca River had been doubled.

Even when pious peasants prayed in the adjacent Bolivar state "Gomes que Dios guarde—God guard Gomez," arms were being smuggled into the country from the border town, Morahanna, British Guiana, by belligerent lieutenants of the seventy-five-year-old President who were said to be awaiting only his death to plunge the South American republic into multi-sided civil war.

RUMORS RECURRENT

From time to time in the last six weeks official denials of the dictator's illness have been published and spoken, but the rumors have not quelled. From an old rocking chair beneath a giant rubber tree Gomez ruled the country for a quarter-century with his mailed fist, virtually owning everything in the land. Periodically he was forced to move swiftly to crush rebellion.

Many Drown in Black Sea Storm

ISTANBUL, Oct. 1 (AP).—More than thirty persons, including five women and three children, were drowned and fifteen boats were wrecked in a heavy storm on the Black Sea and Northern Anatolia today. Four villages were badly damaged, but the exact number of casualties and the extent of losses was not immediately determined.

First Vancouver-Seattle Air Mail Service Is Inaugurated

SEATTLE, Oct. 1 (AP).—The first Vancouver to Seattle air mail schedule was completed at 3:50 p.m. today with the arrival of a Canadian Airways plane piloted by E. P. H. Wells, of Boeing Field. Major Donald R. MacLaren, assistant general manager of the line, was greeted by city, postal officials and executives of the Northwest air lines.

The mail plane's regular schedule calls for a 2:45 p.m. departure from Vancouver daily, and departure from Seattle every morning with the exception of Sundays, at 9:15 a.m.

Stamp collectors from many parts of the world centered their attention on this first flight. Special cachets were prepared by the postal authorities of the United States and Canada.

Warns of Danger to Peace in Canada if Section Is Repealed

Bennett Surprised at Liberal Stand on Statute Regarding Unlawful Assembly—Is Determined to Maintain Law and Order

MONTREAL, Oct. 1 (CP).—Surprise was expressed by Prime Minister Bennett here tonight, that Liberal Leader Mackenzie King had stated that if elected he would repeal Section 98 of the Criminal Code. "I say now what I have told questioners elsewhere, we will not repeal Section 98, but will put the entire forces of the Government and State behind the maintenance of law and order."

"Torn by distrust, unrest, suspicion and doubt, the Canadian people have maintained law and order in the face of the greatest provocation offered by men who go about preaching Communism. When I hear appeals to passion and prejudice to belittle the institutions of your country, I know we are on the highway to ruin. We must get beyond that. It sounds good but it leads to disaster."

Italian Minister Orders Nationals To Leave Ethiopia

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 2 (AP).—The Italian Minister to Ethiopia, Luigi Vitti-Gigli, today ordered all Italian residents and Italian-protected Greeks to leave the country by November 5. The minister and legation authorities planned to leave together after the arrival here of consular officials, en route to the capital from the interior.

Rainfall Is Incessant in Addis Ababa

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 1 (AP).—Contrary to all prophesies, Addis Ababa's heavy rainfall continues, bringing pagoda-like straw umbrellas, dampening the ardor of war advocates and causing a run on rubbers and raincoats. Whether the rains extended to the northern and southern fronts was not known here.

TO SEEK DEATH FOR ARSONISTS

Prosecutors Say Fatal Fire in Chicago Set to Collect $3,000 Insurance

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP).—Prosecutors declared tonight they would seek a death penalty for two prisoners who allegedly started a tenement fire—fatal to ten persons, six of them children—to collect $3,000 insurance.

Assistant State's Attorney Marshall Kearney prepared to go before the grand jury asking murder indictments against Joseph Vitale, forty-five, proprietor of a grocery in the burned building, and Joseph Di Chiaro, thirty-one, whom Vitale reportedly confessed he hired for a promised $100 as the "torch."

PRESSED FOR MONEY

With a shrug, officers said, Vitale declared he had wanted Di Chiaro to start only a small blaze in the building, in which two persons were sleeping Sunday night. Pressed for money, his story, according to police, was that he consulted his nephew, a tavern keeper, who proposed the fire, and told him Di Chiaro was "a good man" for the job.

Sunday afternoon the arsonist carried fifteen gallons of gasoline into the basement. The fire was touched off that night. The flames trapped the sleeping tenants.

M'GEER RESIGNS FROM B.C. HOUSE

Mayor of Vancouver Quitting Provincial Legislature to Contest Federal Seat

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1 (AP).—Mayor G. G. McGeer has forwarded his resignation as member of the British Columbia Legislature for Vancouver-Burrard to Hon. H. G. Perry, the Speaker, he stated here. The move was necessitated by his candidature in the Federal constituency of Burrard.

While the resignation of Mayor G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P.P., as senior member for Vancouver-Burrard in the eighteenth Legislature had been anticipated, Premier Pattullo and members of the Cabinet here were waiting confirmation yesterday from Mr. Speaker Perry.

Provincial by-elections in Burrard and Omineca, the latter earlier vacated by A. M. Manson, K.C., M.P.P., must follow within six months' time; but so far the Government has not considered dates for the references, the Premier said.

New French Battleship Completed

BREST, France, Oct. 1 (AP).—The Dunkerque, first of four new battleships to reinforce France's fighting fleet, takes to the sea tomorrow. The Dunkerque, more powerful than any ship in the navies of France's chief sea rivals, Germany and Italy, will be the first capital ship completed in France since the Great War. Already boasting the world's largest submarine fleet and the fastest destroyers, France will have one of the most powerful battleships afloat.

League Activities Halt as Developments in Italo-Ethiopian Dispute Are Closely Watched—Crisis Brings Extraordinary Diplomatic Exchanges in Paris—Hope of Averting War Slight

Five Italian Consulates in Ethiopia Are Evacuated

GENEVA, Oct. 1 (AP).—The League of Nations observed the eleventh anniversary today of its protocol for the pacific settlement of international disputes—and listened anxiously for the possible outbreak of war in Africa. The protocol outlines various methods by which a dispute between two states may be throttled by League action before it reaches a militant stage.

What worried League statesmen, however, was the possibility of an Italo-Ethiopian clash—already looked upon as almost inevitable—developing into something far worse than a war between two states.

ACTIVITY HALTED

Activity itself in Geneva was almost at a standstill, as all eyes watched Rome, Addis Ababa, London and Paris. New attacks in the Italian press on Great Britain discouraged those who hoped Italo-British tension was lessening.

Reported Anglo-French conversations as to naval co-operation in the Mediterranean, and persistent, though repeatedly denied, rumors of a German-Polish-Hungarian air pact were seen as additional indications of complications radiating out of a "mere colonial controversy."

League officials are more than ever deeply impressed with the difficulty of a practical application of sanctions, should they be voted. The question of what kind of sanctions and how and by whom they would be applied is an exceedingly delicate one.

EXTRAORDINARY EXCHANGES

An increase of $168,084 in the amount of construction during the first nine months of this year compared with the same period of 1934, was reported by the building inspector's office at the City Hall yesterday.

Total value of construction for the month of September, itself, showed a slight increase over September of 1934. Last month, construction to the value of $27,100 was undertaken, as compared with $25,087 for the same month last year.

So far this year twenty-three homes of a total value of $65,800 have been built. This makes the average cost of each home $2,776.

Kiwanians Listen to Political Aspirants at Empress Luncheon

Percy E. George Tells Clubmen Party Politics Has Done Nothing for Canada—Professor J. King Gordon Declares Recovery Methods Wrong

ALL the atmosphere of a political meeting prevailed during the Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon, when the clubmen listened to Percy E. George, Stevens Reconstruction Party candidate, and Professor J. King Gordon, C.C.F. Federal aspirant.

"I am not a professor, a naïveté son of a bachelor like my three rival candidates," Mr. George commenced. He related how he had been thrown upon the world at a tender age and of how having to fend for himself had broadened his outlook.

Mr. George maintained that party politics of the past had done nothing for Canada, and the time had arrived to embark upon a crusade. He regretted that close to a million dollars in campaign funds for the two old-line parties was coming out of the pockets of the people. Reconstruction Party candidates, he said, accepted no funds with strings attached and were, therefore, able to take an independent stand upon matters affecting Canada.

of world markets was becoming smaller, and naturally Canada's exports had decreased accordingly. He declared that the nation must move on to new levels of production and distribution.

"If all modern scientific inventions were used for the good of mankind, there would be prosperity such as the world has never known," Prof. Gordon asserted.

He told how plans of the C.C.F. called for nationalization of banks and industries which would banish poverty and lay the foundation for a new freedom.

Prof. Gordon was introduced by Rev. E. F. Church.

CLAIMS SLOGAN NEEDS CHANGE

Prof. King Gordon and C. Grant MacNeil Address C.C.F. Meeting

Instead of "Stand by Canada," the slogan should be "Advance Canada," Professor J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate in Victoria, told an audience in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium last evening. George F. Hobart presided.

Dealing with the Regina riots, the speaker asserted those who met the despair of the people with repression and abuse were really responsible for inciting to riot. He thought that the time had come when Canada should listen to the cries of hundreds of thousands of destitute persons.

"Canada's problems cannot possibly be solved by a blustering dictator," he said.

"Why should we say we are beaten and allow ourselves to be tied to a decadent system which is dragging us into the mire?" he asked. No matter which of the two old parties attained the majority, he felt that the lives of Canadians would be absolutely controlled by St. James Street.

QUEBEC CONDITIONS
In describing conditions of workers in Quebec, Professor Gordon declared that the police chiefs there had the power to proclaim any meeting illegal. Trades unions were also banned.

He maintained that the C.C.F. would not regiment and order lives of the people. It was only planning to use intelligence in setting free from the present crushing system. He asserted that there was not an economist in Canada who believed the way out of present difficulties was through adherence to the capitalist system.

C. Grant MacNeil, C.C.F. candidate in North Vancouver, told of hovering war clouds fomented by industrial giants, not by the people. He urged all ex-service men to come out and say what they thought of war, regardless of political affiliations.

"The C.C.F. makes only one promise," he said, "and that is to refrain from real until capitalism has been eradicated. We are interested in a social revolution by orderly means so that we may substitute peace and order for the present chaos."

He asserted that Mr. Bennett and Mr. King both sought to stifle action and curb production, and had no thought of human happiness being destroyed and lives endangered. Mr. Stevens, he believed, merely wanted to "streamline capitalism."

Mr. MacNeil outlined the need for a new philosophy or creed, embracing kindness, friendship and neighborliness as opposed to the mad scramble after the false gods of money and profit.

Reading extracts from a Vancouver newspaper, he sought to prove that Mr. Bennett was defying forces which inevitably would overthrow him. "Governments were instituted so that men might pursue life, liberty and happiness, but now the police are expressing the repressive forces of the Canadian Government," he concluded.

FIVE WOUNDED IN GUN FIGHTS
Seven Gunmen Make Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob Bank in Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP).—Police tonight sought Henry J. "Midgert" Fernkes, desperado, who recently escaped from the Joliet Penitentiary, the leader of seven gunmen who left five persons wounded in their flight from an unsuccessful robbery attempt at the University State Bank on the South Side.

William Fleming, fifty-eight, retired policeman, a guard at the bank, was shot twice through the chest and critically wounded when he drew his pistol to fight it out with the gunmen as they invaded the bank, shouting "It's a stick-up."

At the same time Miss Astrid Olson, a teller, and other employees stepped on fear gas releases, filling the bank with blinding fumes. In the fusillade between Fleming and the gunmen three customers fell. Mrs. Dorothy Gregory, twenty-nine, was shot in the hip and the bullet lodged in her spine. Dr. Thorne Deuel, forty-five, a research associate in anthropology at the University of Chicago, was shot in the left ankle, and Carl Ruether, forty, a salesman, suffered a flesh wound in the right side.

A few minutes later, six miles northwest of the robbery scene, the gunmen, accompanied by a woman and either a boy or a small man riding in a second car, tried to curb the auto of Sergeant Maurice Flynn of the South Parks police.

In the exchange of shots which followed, Chester White, twenty-three, a negro bystander, was shot in the leg. The gunmen escaped. Flynn's car was found to have twenty bullet holes in it.

BAIL IS SET AT $10,000

Hearing of Manslaughter Charge Against F. R. Findlay Remanded

Francis R. Findlay, charged with manslaughter as a result of the accident on Sunday in which Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter met their death, had the preliminary hearing of his case adjourned for a week in the city police court yesterday morning. In setting bail for the accused in the sum of $10,000 in two sureties, Magistrate Jay pointed out to M. A. Beckwith, counsel for the defence, that the offence charged was a very serious one and the amount of bail would have to be placed very high.

At a late hour last night, bail had not been raised for the accused.

MAIN WITNESSES
When the case was called in court yesterday, C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, pointed out that owing to the physical condition of the main witnesses it would be necessary to call, he would have to ask for an adjournment. He suggested a week's time.

Mr. Harrison said that he did not wish to delay the hearing any longer than possible, as counsel for the accused had indicated that he would like to have the case disposed of at the approaching Assizes, which will open in Victoria on October 23.

Mr. Beckwith agreed with the adjournment, and, accordingly, the case stands on remand until next Tuesday.

INQUEST ADJOURNED
The taking of evidence at the inquest into the death of Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. McCarter was postponed yesterday until Tuesday, October 29. The coroner's jury was duly sworn in by Dr. E. C. Hart, and after viewing the bodies of the deceased an adjournment was taken for four weeks.

The coroner pointed out that it would be impossible to proceed with the inquest, as the principal witnesses were not in a condition to appear and offer their evidence.

SPEND HEAVILY TO GIVE RELIEF
Policy of Bennett Government Is Explained by C. H. Dickie, Supporter

CHAMAINUS, Oct. 1.—The first thing to be dealt with when Premier Bennett was elected to office in 1930 was unemployment. C. H. Dickie, Conservative candidate in the Nanaimo Federal riding, stated at a meeting here Monday night.

Twenty million dollars were spent on unemployment relief so that no body should want, he asserted. The doors of Canada were shut to foreign immigrants so that the unemployment situation would not be aggravated, Mr. Dickie said.

The speaker then dealt with the Ottawa conference of 1932. Through agreements reached at this conference, the lumbering industry of British Columbia had prospered. Similarly, trade had been stimulated in other natural resources.

ORIENTAL VOTE
Mr. Dickie explained why he did not think Socialism could succeed, and pointed out instances of where it had failed. He also attacked the C.C.F. party in connection with its policy of enfranchising Orientals.

Colonel W. B. Clayton, his opponent in the Ottawa trade treaties of 1932, and showed how the conference had resulted in the establishment of 300 new plants in Canada.

Answering Mr. Mackenzie King's charge that the Conservative Government had lost the world's markets for Canada, Colonel Clayton said, "How does it happen that we stood eleven places as an exporter to Great Britain in 1930, and in 1935 we stand in second place?"

CANADA SOLVENT
The speaker claimed that the Bennett administration had kept Canada solvent and by its financial assistance had kept the various provinces throughout Canada solvent.

F. S. Cunliffe spoke on the decrease in the exports to the United States of agricultural products during the war, and explained Mr. King's proposition that we should lower our tariff and let the Americans dump whatever they like into our country and they perhaps will let us dump anything into their country. Mr. Cunliffe stated that since the Ottawa trade agreements over 10,000 persons were given employment in British Columbia. He also commented on the surtax imposed by the Government on all goods from Canada. This made it absolutely impossible to ship Canadian goods into Japan, but, in spite of the fact that other markets for our goods were available—Mr. King should be elected, would endeavor to bring about a trade agreement with Japan.

Mr. Bennett, he declared, said the price demanded was too great because it sacrificed Canadian workmen and industries. He explained that if cheaper-made Japanese articles came into Canada it would automatically throw Canadian people out of work.

Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. C. H. Dickie and Robert Wormleighton.

That Body of Yours
(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE X-RAY SHOWS UP THE APPENDIX

Patients may sometimes wonder why their physician recommends an X-ray examination of the stomach and intestines when the trouble is likely to be in just one or the other and not in both. They feel that the physician should be able to locate the trouble exactly and not put them to the expense of the X-ray examination, reasonable though it may be.

As a matter of fact, when there is trouble in the abdomen, in addition to the X-ray of the stomach and intestines, an X-ray examination of the gall bladder by means of a dye and the X-ray is really what the physician would like to have done to enable him to learn more as to the cause of the symptoms.

In cases where the stomach may be upset from time to time and when symptoms of gall bladder exist—pain just below the right breast—it is often the appendix that is at fault. And, should the appendix be at fault the X-ray will usually show it.

The method of filling the appendix is to give the barium and milk to the patient at night, following this after three hours by a dose of magnesium sulphate (Epsom salts). The X-ray pictures are taken the following morning and are continued at different intervals during the following days until the part of the large intestine in which the appendix is situated is entirely empty.

Dr. F. G. Wood in The British Medical Journal tells of the examination of one hundred patients; the appendix was successfully filled in ninety-three and failed to fill in seven.

Thirty of the patients were operated on, and the appearance under the X-ray corresponded with what the surgeons found at operation.

The X-ray will show whether the appendix is normal or not normal. If not normal there will be a change in its shape, its position, and the length of time it takes to empty itself of the barium mixture. If the X-ray shows that the appendix is dilated or enlarged it is considered a most important sign of disease, especially if the farthest end of it is dilated or enlarged, as this means that a considerable quantity of the barium mixture remains there instead of emptying out into the intestine as it should.

The thought, then, is that while it costs a little extra money for an X-ray of the intestine showing the appendix, in most cases it shows whether or not an operation is necessary.

PERSONAL VIEW IS CHALLENGED

Liberal Supporter Demands
King Gordon Make Public
Stand on Three Points

Professor J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate in the Victoria Federal riding, was challenged by Joseph B. Clearhugh, speaking in support of Jack McDowell, Liberal candidate, at the Victoria West school last night, to declare his stand publicly on the question of the Oriental franchise; on the question of how he proposes to divide the House of Commons and his profession in Montreal, and also upon the question of whether he will submit to the dictates of a national council of twelve.

Mr. Clearhugh read an article from the British Columbia Worker, the official Communist organ in this province, in which it was stated that after representatives of the Communist party had interviewed Mr. Gordon they had decided to support the C.C.F. candidate rather than put a Communist candidate in the field.

JOIN FORCES
"Mr. Gordon tells you he repudiates their support. I ask him now to definitely and publicly declare whether he will repudiate their votes? It seems to me that the slogan of the Communist party is to get a majority of C.C.F. and Communists in the Federal House," Mr. Clearhugh declared.

Mr. Clearhugh attacked the C.C.F. for voting for the establishment of a privately owned central bank when they were already committed to a policy of favoring national credit and currency. He said that a party that was as inconsistent as this could not be depended upon if given the reins of government.

COUNCIL OF TWELVE
Professor Gordon had been given to the C.C.F. party of Victoria as a candidate by the National Council of Twelve, the speaker contended, explaining that several Victorians had been willing to run here on the C.C.F. ticket. It was but another indication of how the representatives of government would be dictated to by a secret council, much in the same manner as in Russia, if the C.C.F. party was given control, he declared.

Mr. McDowell touched upon tariff questions in a more intimate manner than most speakers have done in the election. He took a list of domestic goods, of household electrical and other character and showed how the people were paying from 30 to 50 per cent and some times as high as 100 per cent more for them in Canada than they would in the United States.

KNOWS CITY'S NEEDS
The candidate said he felt particularly qualified to represent Victoria at Ottawa as he knew the needs of the city. If elected, he would go to Ottawa to convince them that the views of the city of Victoria were not to be taken into account by the national council of twelve.

Mr. Clearhugh contended, had been robbed consistently of one thing and another. First it was the sealing industry, then governmental departments, the seaplane base, and he could give no assurance of "how much more the city will be robbed if men were sent to Ottawa who were entirely indifferent to the welfare of the community which they represented."

B. McNeill touched upon trade matters and showed how during the Mackenzie King administration of 1925-30, Canada's trade had amounted to $11,861,000,000 and how this trade had been reduced to $5,955,000,000 during the five years of the Bennett administration. W. H. Kinsman presided.

Expects Frost to Eliminate Plague

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 1 (AP)—Huge swarms of grasshoppers devastated parts of Kansas and Western Missouri. They filled the air at Emporia, Kan., border town over Abilene, Kan. Early reports indicated no danger of a hopper "plague." J. C. Mohler, secretary of the Kansas Board of Agriculture, said the first good frost would end them.

WEATHER DELAYING STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT

RAPID CITY, S.D., Oct. 1 (AP)—Study of the weather map late tonight indicated there was no possibility of a take-off before Thursday morning of the National Geographic Society-Army Air Corps stratosphere balloon. Prospects for the flight then were uncertain.

Little Stories for Bedtime

An Unexpected Friend
By THORNTON W. BURGESS

While Redcoat the Tanager was telling Peter Rabbit of his dreadful accident, Mrs. Tanager was flying about in the treetops nearby calling anxiously. She did not look at all like Redcoat, for she was dressed almost wholly in light olive-green and greenish yellow.

"Can't you fly up just a little way so as to get off the ground?" she cried anxiously. "But I'm dreadful. Peter Rabbit, to have such an accident happen? We've just got our nest half built, and I don't know what I shall do if anything happens to Redcoat. Oh, dear, here comes somebody! Hide, Redcoat! Hide!"

Poor Redcoat, with the odd look of terror in his eyes, hurried along, trying to find something under which to hide. But there was no way of hiding that wonderful scarlet coat. Peter heard the sound of heavy footsteps, and looking back saw Farmer Brown's Boy coming.

"Don't be afraid, Redcoat," he whispered. "It is Farmer Brown's Boy, and I'm sure he won't hurt you. Perhaps he can help you. Then he scampered off a short distance and sat up to watch what would happen."

Of course Farmer Brown's Boy saw Redcoat. No one with any eyes at all could have missed him because of that wonderful scarlet coat. He saw, too, by the way Redcoat was acting, that he was in great trouble. He understood instantly that something was wrong with one wing, and running forward he caught Redcoat.

"You poor little thing. You poor beautiful little creature," said Farmer Brown's Boy softly as he saw the cruel twig sticking through Redcoat's shoulder. "We'll have to get that out right away," continued

"Meanwhile, Mrs. Tanager Came and Talked to Him and Fussed About Him"

Farmer Brown's Boy, stroking Redcoat ever so gently. Somehow at that gentle touch Redcoat lost much of his fear and a little hope sprang in his heart. This was no enemy, but a friend. With his knife Farmer Brown's Boy cut off the twig on the upper side of the wing. Then doing his best to be careful and to hurt as little as possible, he worked the other part of the twig out from the under side. Carefully he examined the wing to see if any bones were broken. None were, and after holding Redcoat a few minutes he carefully set him up in a tree and withdrew a short distance. Redcoat sat there for some time as if fearful of trying that injured wing. Meanwhile Mrs. Tanager came and talked to him and fussed about him and coaxed him, and made as much of him as if he were a baby.

After a while he ventured to try his wing and found that he could fly. Then he and Mrs. Tanager disappeared in the Green Forest.

"I knew Farmer Brown's Boy would help him, and I'm so glad he found him," cried Peter happily and started for the dear Old Briar Patch.

BULB GROWERS NEEDING HELP

R. M. Palmer, Cobble Hill, Tells Horticulturists Competition Is Increasing

Government assistance to bulb growers will be required in the immediate future if the industry, now increasing in British Columbia, is to successfully compete with foreign importations, R. M. Palmer, of Cobble Hill, advised members of the Victoria Horticultural Society at its meeting in the City Hall last night. Mr. Palmer instanced a new threat to the industry here from the Japanese growers who have been gradually coming into the market during the last two years. At present, he observed, there did not seem to be a tariff sufficiently high to take care of this competition.

NEED TRAINED MEN
Vancouver Island and parts of British Columbia, he declared, had everything in their favor for growing bulbs commercially, but the industry, at the moment, lacked trained men, and he suggested the Provincial Government appoint an expert to assist the growers in their problems. He maintained it might be necessary to assist the growers in the same manner as fruit growers were assisted some years ago. He said that in view of increasing competition, there was no time to promote an industry on the "trial and error" principle.

Mr. Palmer was the guest speaker at the society's meeting and discussed the many phases of bulb culture from the amateur standpoint and from the commercial angle. He was quite confident that Vancouver Island could produce bulbs of higher standards than the imported varieties.

UNITED SOCIETY
A question that is at present under advisement by the members of the society is the amalgamation of all horticultural groups, including the Vancouver Island society, and it is possible that a vote of the membership will be taken. The executive has already considered the proposition and has voted against a straight amalgamation, which would involve the pooling of assets, liabilities and resources of all groups.

President H. Whitehead announced the winners of the monthly competitions as follows: Three sprays of outdoor-grown chrysanthemums, 1. A. M. Scott; 2. Francis Turner; 3. Carroll; 1. W. R. Nicholas; 2. G. Attwood.

SUFFERS INJURY IN CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. Ernest Jourdain In Royal Jubilee Hospital With Severe Cut in Her Head

Suffering from a severe cut in her head, received when she was thrown against the door of the car in which she was riding as it came to a sudden stop at the intersection of Dominion and Esquimalt Roads, late Monday night, Mrs. Ernest Jourdain, Wilson Hotel, is in the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

She was a passenger with her husband in the automobile of J. Lemieux, Fairfield Apartments. According to police, Mrs. Jourdain apparently became excited as the machine neared the intersection, on its way toward the city from Esquimalt Road, and she threw herself out of the windshield. Mr. Lemieux brought the car to an instant stop and the jolt threw Mrs. Jourdain against the corner of the door.

After the injured woman had been removed to hospital, Mr. Lemieux continued to crank the machine while it was in gear. The car started across the road and Mr. Lemieux jumped on the bumper. It came to a stop when it crashed against a fence on Bothwell Street after dropping three feet from the pavement into a lot.

KING ATTACKS GOV'T REFORMS

Asserts—Measures Inaugurated by Bennett for Political Purposes

REGINA, Oct. 1 (AP)—All reform measures inaugurated by the Bennett Government were designed for political purposes and not to serve the people, Liberal Leader Mackenzie King said here tonight. Had Mr. Bennett been sincere in his reforms he would have brought them in before the last session of Parliament and would have tested their legal validity.

These measures were all hastily patched up to meet the exigencies of the election campaign, Mr. Bennett did not even trouble himself to use the measures to the full after they were passed. One of them provided for a public prosecutor who had not yet been appointed. It was reported he would be appointed in a few days, only a week before the election. The public prosecutor, he remarked, "would not have time to take his coat off."

JAPANESE TRADE
In foreign affairs the Government had sought to blast its way. The loss of the Japanese market for Canadian goods was one of the results of this policy. A Liberal party would pursue a policy of co-operation and conciliation in dealing with other nations and in dealing with unemployment and other domestic problems a human policy which would have regard to the feeling and personalities of the people.

The Wheat Board Act was the work of members of all parties, said Mr. King. It was not a Conservative or a Bennett product.

Y.M.C.A. Auxiliary Tea Is Gratifying Success

With receipts amounting to more than $85, most enthusiastic support from old friends and new, and a charming musical programme, the annual membership tea of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. held yesterday afternoon by the president, Mrs. Donald Meade, at her home, 661 Beach Drive, was a most gratifying success.

The house was most tastefully decorated with flowers, the drawing-room, at the entrance to which stood the hostess, assisted by Mrs. S. J. Willis and Mrs. James Fletcher, having bowls of goldenrod, marigolds and other tawny shades, and the tea table being centred with cornucopias of salmon and Michaelmas daisies, with rose-colored tapers in silver sconces. The ladies at the urns were Mrs. Roy Angus, Mrs. W. J. Pendry, Mrs. J. S. Plaskett and Miss Agnes. Early in the afternoon Mrs. Meade made a business-like speech in which she gracefully thanked those who had helped to make the tea such a success, including those who had assisted with the arrangements, the artists and the patrons. She also briefly touched on the aims and achievements of the auxiliary, and reminded everyone of the bigger annual tea to be held at the Y.M.C.A. in November, an event for which she bespoke the support of those present.

Those taking part on the much-enjoyed musical programme yesterday were: Miss Kathleen Lawell and Miss Honor Benson, who skilfully accompanied at the piano by Miss Sheila Conway, sang most beautifully.

In charge of the tea arrangements were: Mrs. A. S. Lock, Mrs. Duncan MacBride, Mrs. Mawhinney and Mrs. Walter Tuck, and at the receipt of custom was Mrs. A. V. Clarke.

Girls' Choir Idea Popular With Parents

Frank Tupperman's idea of a junior women's choir, which will be able to absorb girls as they leave high school, and at the same time act as a preparatory choir to train the fresh young voices for absorption into the adult choirs of the city as openings occur in these, has met with a very favorable reception. Fifteen or sixteen girls attended the first meeting a few evenings ago, many of them accompanied by their parents, who have welcomed the suggestion with enthusiasm, and another meeting will be held this evening at the schoolroom of the First Baptist Church. Further voices will be welcomed.

MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE

Work in sight-reading, music appreciation, history of music, the study of the composers, and other matters of general musical knowledge, will be taken up each week in addition to the regular rehearsals. The idea is not to give public performances, but at the same time the intention is to give private concerts from time to time, at which the parents and other friends of the girls will be welcomed to see what the class is doing in duet, quartette, sextette, and general choral work.

PUBLIC AUDITORIUM FOR CITY PROMISED

6. The "New Deal Campaign" and its definite results.

7. Good quality entertainment had been provided for 175,000 persons during the Summer on the Show Boat; extra business was brought to local businessmen.

8. Plans to form a Winter programme to include a Home Beautiful Exhibition along the Olympia, London, lines and three major social activities.

9. Bringing here of a record-breaking number of tourists next year.

LARGE AUDITORIUM

The speaker related that plans were nearly completed for a public auditorium to accommodate 5,000 persons and make possible great musical festivals, operas, balls, indoor athletic meets and other civic functions.

"With a few days our association will launch a unique campaign aimed at raising (quite painlessly) $250,000," stated Mr. Elsie. This money would be used for the auditorium and other civic requirements. He was confident the money would be raised, although he indicated the drive would not be along the lines of ordinary fund campaigns.

If I may be permitted an entirely friendly criticism, I would say that many of us in this city talk too much and do too little; criticize too meticulously and help too indifferently; that we fail to take the long view because we are too concerned with "the immediate profit," declared Mr. Elsie, at the outset of his remarks.

BROAD OUTLOOK ESSENTIAL

It was "more necessary now than ever before for local residents to take the long view," he urged a "long" view on Canadian matters, but more particularly Island affairs.

Mr. Elsie reviewed the founding of his association and the "Five Year Plan" a year ago. Since the city promulgated such a plan, Seattle and Vancouver had copied the scheme and San Francisco was seriously considering a similar proposal.

Mr. Elsie declared he was not satisfied with the progress made in actual material achievement, but he was encouraged to believe the tourist development plan had been "sold to the citizens of Victoria."

GREAT MEMBERSHIP

The organization now registers a local membership of 1,000 persons and an all-Island membership of more than 2,000 persons. The roster includes most of the community leaders, prominent men in commercial fields and officially appointed representatives of eighty-four local churches, business, civic, recreational, service and social organizations. Although he recognized that the association could have progressed more rapidly, an intelligent demand of its practicability had been demanded.

Once Victorians had adopted the plan, he thought, it would be carried through to its ultimate conclusion, an All-Island membership of more than 2,000 persons, including mayors, reeves and commissioners of every Island centre, at Nanaimo in April, had resulted in definite closer co-

PLANS FOR FUTURE

Next year, he continued, it was planned to distribute a native-grown flower to each lady visitor. Male escorts would be given a programme and time table of Island events and a specially prepared tourist map. The association had assisted in regattas, sports meetings and similar public gatherings in the Summer, said Mr. Elsie. The organization had conducted the biggest and most successful Highland Games Day on the Pacific Coast in twenty years. Unnecessary clashing of dates was being eliminated by the establishment of an all-Island date registration bureau, declared Mr. Elsie.

MONEY SPENT HERE

All the funds raised on the Show Boat had been spent locally, he said. Other retail firms had reported increases directly attributable to the Show Boat performances.

The Five-Year Plan contemplates Winter as well as Summer activities. Both are necessary if we are to have an all-the-year-round pleasure resort," he continued.

"We scrambled through the Summer the best we could without an auditorium in the Winter that is not possible. Until we have a big indoor gathering place in Victoria, efforts to develop our Winter traffic must be difficult. A Winter programme, somewhat curtailed by conditions, is now being prepared for publication. It will probably include a home beautiful exhibition on Olympia, London, lines and two or three unique social gatherings," he declared.

This would also provide for co-operation and assistance for those associations and organizations providing community entertainment this Winter, Mr. Elsie stated.

WINTER ACTIVITY

"In 1936 we hope to commence building up a recognized and widely known Winter season, realizing that Vancouver Island is the one-legend place in all Canada which can make a success out of such a season," he said.

The whole Winter programme when evolved will be distributed to the potential twelve million visitors residing in the Prairies, Eastern Canada, Washington, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho and Utah, Mr. Elsie continued. This was certain to attract a steady flow of tourists. He predicted tourist records would be broken by next year.

He stated the association would profit from its past mistakes. He appreciated the co-operation of the Victoria and Vancouver Island Publicity Bureau.

TO CONTINUE SUPPORT

An earnest appeal to members of the Credit Granters' Association to continue their support of the association was expressed by Mr. Elsie.

"I make an earnest plea for intelligent appreciation of what has been done and for continued support that we may carry on the work to its logical conclusion—that logical conclusion being a harbor thronged with shipping, streets alive with happy visitors, stores and workshops operation between Island centres and Victoria, he said.

Twenty-two Island gatherings had been held and almost every Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce had adopted and pledged support to the movement.

CLOSER CO-OPERATION

"During the past season there has been very genuine all-Island co-operation—dates have been changed to prevent clashing; communities at their own expense have advertised locally even of other communities; delegations from all points have met on common ground and discussed their mutual problems; advertising, the wording of which might prove offensive to other communities, has been changed, and a real spirit of comradeship in common cause has been displayed," continued Mr. Elsie.

A committee under Alderman Dr. D. Hunter would have some definite progress to report before next Summer on transportation problems, he said. A programme of Island road requirements had been drawn up, and persistent correspondence was used to keep the issues ever before the proper authorities, Mr. Elsie explained.

As a probable result, he said, the Government had made at least one official survey of Island roads and some work had been done. Much more remained, but the Tourist Trade Development Association would see it through, promised Mr. Elsie.

NEW DEAL CAMPAIGN

The New Deal campaign launched by the association was essentially non-political, he explained. Mr. Elsie related that 50,000 New Deal pamphlets had been distributed, which outlined the plan "facts as to what we pay and what we get." The circulars sought co-ordination of political thought and action among the ten members who represented Vancouver Island in the Provincial Legislature, continued the speaker. A more equitable consideration of Island interests was being sought now through petitions circulated in every Island community.

Mr. Elsie disclosed that all steamers arriving in the Inner Harbor during July, August and the first half of September, had been met by three Scotch girls and the passengers welcomed to the Island to the skirl of the bagpipes. Valuable publicity had been secured for

TAX PAYMENTS COME IN RUSH

More Than $65,000 Taken
In During One Day—Office
Open Until Late

The final rush of property-holders to pay current tax accounts before the penalty came into effect today, saw thousands of dollars pass through the city's cashier cage.

On Monday, approximately $65,000 was collected. This amount did not include cheques received by mail, of which there were several boxes full.

Yesterday the rush was the same as Monday. There was a steady stream of taxpayers visiting the City Hall, and the office was kept open until 9 o'clock last night to facilitate the last-minute taxpayers.

Today a 1 per cent penalty is added to all current accounts. Further penalties are added from time to time, eventually bringing the total up to 8 per cent.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE ON ROAD

SOOKE, Oct. 1.—Extensive road work is in progress on the Sooke-Victoria highway, sixteen miles of resurfacing has been completed, the road is being widened and straightened. A 500-foot cut has been constructed, cutting off an immense rock which jutted into the highway, and doing away with a dangerous turn at Doran's Corner. The laying of a large pipe down the Wharf Road will eliminate an overflow which heretofore has carried away the road in the heavy rainfalls.

A new float has been built to replace the old one attached to the Sooke Government dock, which has recently been repaired by the Federal Government.

Veteran of Three Services Is Dead

LONDON, Oct. 1 (AP).—Air Vice-Marshal Sir Vyvyan Vyvyan, sixty, died yesterday. He served in a punitive expedition against the King of Benin in 1897 and from that date was continuously engaged in the navy, the army and the air force. In 1923 he was made a Knight Commander of the Bath.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A FISH STORY

If fishermen do not watch out, they will lose to bridge the championship for "tail tales." In a prize winning contribution to a contest for the tallest bridge stories, my friend Mrs. Grace Fox deserves a bouquet of orchids for the finest bridge story I have seen in a long time. It runs like this:

"In a recent tournament the bidding was pass, pass, pass, double. The fourth player, when asked what she was doubling, replied: 'Oh, I'm not doubling anything. I am just informing my partner that the next bid.'"

"And that isn't all. The next player passed and the partner of the informing doubler bid one-club, which was made."

"But that isn't all, either. One of the opponents came over the next day, told me about it, and then claimed that it is one of the favorite bids in Ely's system."

Upon second thought, that gives me quite an idea for a new bid, and I will probably hear about it in the Model 1836.

A HOPELESS FINESSE

The other day I sat behind a player who had the following trump suit:

DUMMY
♠ A Q 7 2
♣ A 7 4 2
♦ 10 8 3 2
♥ K 10 7 5 2

He led the jack from dummy and finessed by playing low. It lost to the king. The opponent on his right had led 10 9 8 3 originally and later won a second trump trick.

With such a combination of cards, there is nothing to be gained by finessing. At least one trump trick must be lost, even if the king is played the ace-queen. The way to play the suit is first to lead a low trump toward dummy's jack. If K x are at the left of declarer, he will nevertheless lose only one trick.

MY ATROCIOUS BID

If a bridge player is conceded, he may be too fond of his own brilliant ideas and lose sight of sound general principles. Here is what happened to one of my own atrocious bids:

NORTH
♠ A 7 4
♥ Q J 8 6 4
♦ 8 5 3

WEST
♠ K Q J 10 5
♥ A 6 4
♦ A 9 3
♣ A 9 3

EAST
♠ 9 8 3
♥ J 10 7 2
♦ Q J 10 7 5 4
♣ A 6 2

SOUTH
♠ A 10 9 5 3 2
♥ K Q 9
♦ K 6
♣ K 6

I was South and dealer. We were vulnerable. I bid one heart. West bid one spade, and North, my partner, immediately bid two spades. This is supposedly one of the strongest bids in contract, and should show, among other values, a spade void. I decided to bid gradually up to a slam, and when my opponents finally went to five spades, I bid six hearts. West doubled, and I redoubled. West opened the king of spades.

Only when I saw the dummy did I remember that my partner was

WILLIAM POWELL IS CAPITOL STAR

Plays Leading Role in Brilliant
Picture "Escapade"—Singing
Featured in Film

Stars, romance, music, gaiety, laughter and drama all mingle in a new and unique blend of screen entertainment in "Escapade," a new romance of Vienna that comes today to the Capitol Theatre.

It captures Continental flavor and music, and puts them on the American screen in a story with unusual dramatic twists that keep the audience in a constant state of surprise. Through the deft handling of the story every entertainment value from laughs to tears, from drama to music, is packed into a single evening's diversion.

Directed by Robert Z. Leonard, the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, which stars William Powell and introduces Luise Rainer, brilliant Vienna stage star, to American audiences as his leading lady, has a no-table cast.

Though not a musical picture, there are some elaborate musical sequences. The most important is the opera premiere in which the voice of Enrico Caruso amplified from records made during the tenor's life, with augmented orchestration, recreates his golden tones to grand opera level—the most nearly-actual reproduction of his voice ever achieved.

Allah is pronounced Ah-ya-low. If you want to be absolutely correct, according to L. Chand Mehra, high-caste Brahmin Hindu, who served as actor and technical adviser on Paramount's "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," coming Thursday to the Little Orpheum Theatre.

Mehra's services on the picture, which features Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy Standing, include advice on Hindu caste ethics for the dual purpose of guaranteeing authenticity and preserving peace among the large number of native Hindus employed in its production.

Born and reared in India, Mehra is a graduate of the University of Southern California and a noted lecturer on Sanskrit and Oriental customs.

The address of the Very Rev. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury, has no connection with any political party and his visit to Victoria is being sponsored with no political motive. Dean Johnson will arrive in Victoria tomorrow and will speak in the Empire Theatre at 8 p.m.

The visit of so distinguished and scholarly a guest to this city as the Dean of Canterbury cannot but elicit the interest of citizens and should assure his receiving a hearty welcome.

The subject on which he is announced to speak "Social Credit," is one that is commanding interest at the present time on account of its connection with a new political party. It should, however, be clearly understood that the dean's visit has absolutely no connection with any political party, but he will speak as a protagonist of a system in which he and not a few outstanding men believe may be a solution on Christian lines of the very serious economic and industrial problems of today.

For an intelligent understanding of the principles underlying the system of Social Credit, the public should not miss hearing this distinguished scholar.

At the meeting it was decided to hold the weekly meetings on Tuesdays instead of Thursdays.

W. L. Hardie, Beta Delta adviser, announced that efforts would be made to obtain a guest speaker for the meeting next Tuesday.

If October 2 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

If you enjoy difficulties, all you have to do to have them is to develop a first class grouchy-tidy day. The average person will be very susceptible to the influence exerted by good humor. A general inclination to be sociable will perhaps be noticeable in new acquaintances, which may, in time, prove very lucrative. Any kind of friendly gathering probably will result in beneficial, mental and physical relaxation, as well as a worthwhile interchange of ideas. Avoid any display of egotism, or any apparent attempt to monopolize conversation, or to attract an undue amount of attention. This day is an auspicious one for new adventures or the starting of any form of campaign. Married and engaged couples, and those who are in love, will avert any danger—that might come through some snappy remark if they will keep in mind: "A soft answer turneth away wrath."

If a woman and October 2 is your birthday, you will be wise to constantly remember that not only "patience is a necessary ingredient of genius," but also for happiness without forbearance, especially in household or office affairs, you will be handicapped, so strive for mental composure. You should have many admirers, both in social and business life. Money probably will play an important part in your life as you may have a great deal of it. As a hostess, manager, sales executive, writer, educator or sales agent you have excellent chances to succeed. You should have the ability to make some man very happy, as his wife, and in return have an abundance of happiness yourself.

The child born on October 2 generally, when it reaches its majority, is qualified to select its own calling and should not be interfered with.

Lawn Bowling

By W. H. YOUNG

Together with their friends, members of the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club enjoyed a gala day on Sunday afternoon, when the entire playing space was occupied. The contest staged was in the form of triples, and the rivalry which was manifested while the struggle was at its highest was ample testimony to the standard of entertainment provided. Describing a lawn bowling game is no easy matter, because of the fact that descriptive language is so much circumscribed. However, there were some notable plays, among which might be mentioned that executed by J. W. Mercer, president of the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association, in which he started out to execute a draw shot, getting the "weight" to perfection, but unfortunately played the wrong "hand," the result being that his bowl snuggled quite complacently against the "jack" on the rink of his next-door neighbor. And there were others, but this was the most outstanding.

The contest was staged in two sections of eleven ends each, the winners being rinks skipped by E. Myers, first, and Fred Harman, second.

This afternoon another contest will be held on the same greens, for the benefit of Wednesday afternoon bowlers, which will be open to both male and female devotees of the game, and for which good prizes are being offered.

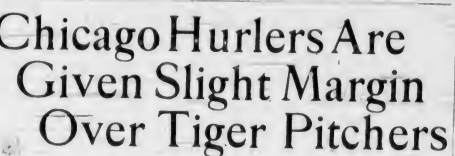

Following are scores and teams in Sunday's contest:

Chicago Hurlers Are Given Slight Margin Over Tiger Pitchers

Lon Warneke, Charlie Root, Bill Lee and Larry French Cubs' "Big Four" Picked in Front of Rowe, Auker, Bridges and Crowder

By PAUL MCKELLEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Chicago Cubs' one of the youngest pennant-winning teams in baseball history, with an age average of but twenty-six years, haven't a pitcher who ever won a world series game, but they figure to hold an edge over Mickey Cochrane's moundmen.

Up until September 4, before the Cubs hurled over the great winning streak that won the flag, the Tiger pitchers, who then had eased up on their superb rush, stacked up as the better mound staff. But the comparative finishes have been great contrasts.

SENSATIONAL WORK
The work of Charlie Grimm's pitchers in the twenty-one-game winning streak has been so sensational that starting hurlers were able to go the full route in eighteen out of twenty-one engagements. Over the spectacular streak only twenty-four pitchers were employed, holding the opposition to forty-eight runs, an average of 2.28 runs a contest.

HAVE MARGIN
With a staff as "hot" as that, you can't deny the Cubs' "big four." Lon Warneke, Charlie Root, Bill Lee and Larry French, a margin over the Tiger "big four," Tommy Row, Elden Auker, Tom Bridges and Alvin Crowder.

Remember When
(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

The many hunters who went abroad yesterday and the continent that will take the field this morning scarcely need to be informed that in certain districts pheasants and quail now are legal game. Owing to the complexity of the regulations because of the restrictions in some sections, the following extract is apropos and will be read with interest.

Cock pheasants may be shot in the Cowichan electoral district between October 4 and December 31, both days inclusive; in the Island electoral district, except the municipality of North Saanich, between October 1 and October 31, both days inclusive. No pheasant shooting is allowed in any other part of the province.

Quail may be shot in Cowichan, Esquimalt, Saanich and Island electoral districts between October 1 and December 31, both days inclusive.

Despite the wind and early-morning rain showers, which in some cases made the fields rather slippery to work upon, the soccer stars went forth on the second day of the season yesterday afternoon, and, although the play generally was not fast soccer, there was a marked improvement in the teamwork of both the Second and First Divisions from that of Saturday week.

In the First Division, the match between the Empress Hotel, eleven and Esquimalt resulted in a draw, each team making three goals, while the Second Division played the Baraca-Esquimalt game also concluded with neither on top.

In fact the former game of the two, a Second Division affair, was one of the finest exhibitions of the day, Baraca or Esquimalt being unable to score.

The park orator made frequent references to Darwin's "Origin of Species." A tall man and his short companion hung on the outskirts of the crowd, but were unable to get near the speaker. "What's he saying, Bill," asked the small man. "Est more fruit, I think," retorted the other. "All he keeps talking about is Darwin's oranges and peaches."

Cubs Made Favorites To Defeat Tigers in Game at Navin Field

Lonnie Warneke and "Schoolboy" Rowe Will Be Starting Hurlers—Capacity Crowd Expected to Be on Hand for Opening Clash

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

DETROIT, Oct. 1 (AP).—The world series, shaking off the chilling effects of an unwelcome blast of football weather, opens tomorrow in full panoply. It brings together Detroit Tigers, two-time American League champions, and Chicago Cubs, stretch sensations of the National League pennant race, in an uproar of old-time rivalry.

Navin Field likely will be packed to its capacity of 48,700, a new high for the park, when the two lanky sharpshooters from Arkansas, Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe, of the Cubs, and Lonnie Warneke, of the Tigers, unwrap their good right arms for a pitching duel.

SELL-OUT EXPECTED
With warmer, more seasonable weather promised for the opening day, it looked like a certain sell-out. "It will be a $1,000,000 series if only five games are played, taking into account the fact that $100,000 for broadcasting rights will be added to the gate receipts. A six or seven-game battle, which isn't at all unlikely, will mean an all-time financial record. The previous high mark of $1,207,000 was by the Yankees and Cardinals, in 1928, in seven games.

The Cubs ruled favorites in the betting tonight to take the opening game, not only because they are rated the "hotter club," but because the acknowledged prowess of Warneke. The Tigers have been slight favorites to capture the series, among wagering men, but a rush of Chicago money indicated a possible switch.

A majority of baseball writers, after watching the two clubs go through their final practice paces between showers today, indicated a preference for Chicago's chances. But it's a tough series to "dope."

Chicago's hopes are hinged largely upon the long right arm of Warneke. Just as the Tigers place supreme confidence in the sharpshooting ability of Rowe, Warneke enters the championship test with a record unmatched by any other pitcher in baseball over his last seven games. He has captured his last seven games, and against the best opposition could err. Rowe's control has been erratic and the schoolboy doesn't do his best in cool weather.

Manager Charles Grimm, the banjo-playing pilot of the National League champions, will pitch the veteran Charlie Root in the second game, probably against Tommy Bridges, slim curve-ball artist of the Tigers. Big Bill Lee, freshman right-hander, will draw the third-game assignment at Wrigley Field, likely against Detroit's Elden Auker, submarine-ball right-hander.

Warneke will be shot right back into action for the fourth game and he will be ready again for the seventh game, in Detroit, if the series goes the limit.

RELIEF HURLER
Grimm's pitching programme does not include a starting assignment for Larry French, his southpaw star. French will be kept primed for relief work, if and when necessary, the manager declared.

Cochrane's pitching strategy took similar shape as Mickey indicated he would rely mainly upon Rowe, Bridges and Kuffy, fast crank right-handers, for starting duty. The veteran right-hander, Al Crowder, will be in reserve, along with the southpaw relief pitcher, "Chief" Elin Haggell.

ELIGIBLE PLAYERS
CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP).—Players of the pennant-winning Detroit Tigers and Chicago Cubs named as eligible to play in the world series by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, are as follows:

Detroit—Manager Gordon J. Cochrane, Elden L. Auker, Thomas Bridges, Herman Clinton, Alvin P. Crowder, Ervin Fox, Charles Gehring, Leon Goslin, Henry Greenberg, Raymond H. Hayworth, Elin Haggell, Rexie Lawson, Marvin Owen, Frank Reiber, William O. Russell, Lynwood Rowe, Henry Schulte, to follow as the right road

Hubert Shelley, Victor Sorrell, Joseph Sullivan, Gerald H. Walker, Joyner White, Coach Del Baker, Coach Ralph Perkins.

PROBABLE LINE-UPS
DETROIT, Oct. 1 (AP).—Here are the probable line-ups for the opening game tomorrow:
Chicago (National)—Galan, if; Herman, 2b; Lindstrom, cf; Hartnett, c; Demaree, rf; Cavarretta, lb; Hack, 3b; Jurges, ss; Warneke, p.
Detroit (American)—White, cf; Cochrane, c; Gehring, 2b; Greenberg, lb; Goslin, if; Fox, rf; Rogell, ss; Owen, 3b; Rowe, p.
American League umpires, George Moriarty and Bill McGowan; National League, Ernest Quigley and Dolly Stark.

Miss Jean Duncan Is Gold Medalist
DUNCAN, Oct. 1.—Miss Jean Duncan was medalist in the first day's play of the Cowichan Golf Club championship, which began here yesterday. Miss Duncan, who is 87, Mrs. H. N. Watson, 89; Miss D. Peterson, 91; Mrs. J. Longbourne, 95; Mrs. J. S. Robinson, 104; Mrs. F. G. Alderley, 106; Mrs. G. G. Share, 106; Mrs. V. Prest, 106.

The draw follows: Championship flight: Miss Duncan vs. Mrs. Robinson; Mrs. Share vs. Miss Peterson; Mrs. Longbourne vs. Mrs. Watson. The four eliminated will play in the championship consolation flight.

First flight: Mrs. A. C. Johnston vs. Miss D. Peterson; Miss M. Wynne vs. Mrs. C. C. Wright; Miss G. Beaver vs. Mrs. C. Griffiths; Mrs. R. Nugent vs. Mrs. Boyd Wallis.

Second flight: Mrs. F. Oldham, by; Miss B. Ditch vs. Mrs. P. Chambers; Mrs. Sweetman vs. Mrs. G. Colbourne; Mrs. G. Hewlett vs. Mrs. T. E. M. Hedley. The finals will be played on Friday.

Much has been said about the triumphs of the unknowns, Sam Parks, Jr., and Alfred Perry. They have been hailed as "unorthodox players."

The term leads followers of the game to believe that there are many ways of playing a successful shot. Action pictures prove that there is but one way to hit a truly and consistently successful shot.

Position of the various parts of the body at the moment of impact must be correct if the ball is to fly properly. The simplicity and ease with which a player reaches this hitting position is the measure of his consistency. All roads lead to Rome, but this doesn't mean that they're all as direct or as easy to follow as the right road.

PATRICK WILL FACE SEATTLE MAN TONIGHT

"Duke" Helskun to Fight Champion in Main Event Of Mixed Card

Appearing for the last time in a local ring before he leaves for the East, Murray "Muzz" Patrick, Dominion and Washington State heavyweight champion, will step five two-minute rounds with "Duke" Helskun, Seattle, in the main event of a boxing and wrestling card to be staged tonight at the Tillamook Gymnasium.

The matches were arranged by the Victoria Athletic Club as its first programme of the season. The preliminary bouts will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

WRESTLING FEATURE
In the main wrestling bout of the night, Reggie Hopkins, local matman, and George Lowe, the "Chinese Flash," grappling at 135 pounds, will tangle over the four four-minute-round route. Both boys are experienced wrestlers, and should stage a smart contest.

"Muzz" Patrick needs no introduction to local fans. Well known for his willingness and ability to mix Patrick will be in there to win before he leaves to attend a New York boxing school. However, the Seattle "Duke" is recognized as a smart matman, and should keep Patrick busy.

Other events on the card include:

Semi-main event, five two-minute rounds—Rex Carey, Victoria, vs. Ed Peterson, Seattle, 160 pounds.
Five two-minute rounds—Bobbie Parker, Victoria, vs. Frank Butts, Seattle, at 115 pounds.

Security Prices Turn Softer at New York Mart

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP).—A last-minute flurry of selling in the rails brought liquidation into the other groups in the stock market today and the list finished with net losses of fractions to a point or more.

Up to just before the close, the general market had made headway uphill for fair gains, under the leadership of the motors and specialties, some of which bumped through to new highs for the year.

Brokers said the sell-off in the rails was the result of a somewhat discouraged feeling on the part of the outlook for this section.

While the rails suffered the sharpest setback, the industrials and utilities had smaller losses, the latter sustaining the least.

Measured by the Associated Press average of sixty stocks, the market was down 6 1/2 points to 48.8.

Transactions totaled 1,420,210 shares, compared with 1,258,630 on Monday.

A sudden wave of selling in rails unsettled the bond market during the final hour today.

The new financial market tumbled to 1-2 higher.

Foreign bonds were fairly steady.

WHEAT PRICES BOUND UPWARD

Futures Advance Nearly Two Cents at Winnipeg—Outside Markets Strong

WINNIPEG, Oct. 1 (AP).—Grains pushed up vigorously on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

By the support of export sale of 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat.

In continuing their recovery from wheat prices declined.

Wheat prices fell 1-7 to 1-1 1/2 cents above Monday's close, with October 92-3 1/2, November 93-3 1/2.

December 92-1 1/2 to 92-3 1/2 and May 97 to 97-1 1/2 cents.

At Liverpool and Chicago prices closed, respectively 13-8 and 35-8 cents higher.

Shippers' offers were dearer. Liverpool reported today, with good demand for Canadian wheat.

Reported, fair-sized quantities of high-grade wheat were sold for shipment from Vancouver.

Trading continued dull in the cash grain section, with lightness of offerings restricting sales.

Prices were lower, with wheat at most lower grades of wheat cash sharply. In quiet trading, coarse grain prices moved higher with wheat.

FLIGHT...by W. D. TIPTON and J. H. MASONTHE FIRST 200 M.P.H. AIRPLANE

HE WAS RENDERED PARTIALLY UNCONSCIOUS BY THE CENTRIFUGAL FORCE OF HIS SHARP TURN AND RECOVERED JUST IN TIME TO AVOID A CRASH.

THE first airplane to fly 200 m.p.h. whirled in an era of speed during which designers averaged a gain of 20 m.p.h. in maximum speed for each of the ten years following. The Curtiss Army racer which won the Pulitzer Race in 1933 was the fastest of a group of pure racing planes built for the U.S. Army and Navy. The services wanted speed and American designers and builders produced an array of racing craft faster than those of any other nation.

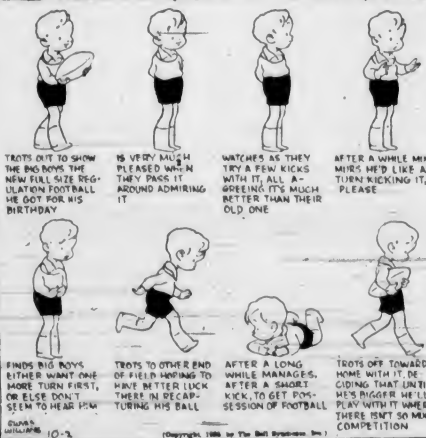

During the next three years a 60 m.p.h. increase in speed was registered simply because the military services supported service racing. When this support was withdrawn, the United States immediately lost world supremacy in speed, and the Italians, with Mussolini's drive behind them, took world speed honors. Then the British Royal Air Force began to support their designers, and the world speed record went to Great Britain, who held it for several years, only to lose it again to the Italians. The struggle for speed supremacy between Italy and Great Britain produced two marvelous engines, the Fiat in Italy of 3,100 h.p. and the Rolls Royce—in England of 2,900 h.p. In the U.S.A., where the speed quest was born, they have never tried to build anything bigger than 1,500 h.p. and have no tried and proven engine as big as 1,000 h.p.

VOX POPULI

This phrase is frequently encountered, particularly during political campaigns or during those periods of stress when the public clamors more vociferously than usual for its desires.

The expression is a contraction of the Latin "Vox populi vox Dei," the voice of the people is the voice of God. The idea is that the majority—or, the people united—is always right.

The phrase, which is quite old, acquired its meed of prominence in our language because of its use as a text, by Simon Mepham, Archbishop of Canterbury, for his sermon preached on the occasion of the coronation of Edward III, in 1327.

TRAFFIC SURVEY TO BE MADE BY COUNCIL

A survey of what traffic hazards may exist at the intersection of Blackwood Street and Hillside Avenue will be made by the chief of police, city engineer and executive of the public works committee.

This action was taken by the City Council on Monday in view of the accident on Sunday at this point, which emphasized the danger that exists at this crossing.

Steamers are called tramp steamers when they do not belong to any regular steamship company, but are operated by individuals.

TO ADJUDICATE ISLAND TEAMS

Sub-Regional Drama Festival Will Be Held in Victoria in January

Victoria and Up-Island teams entering the 1935 Dominion Drama Festival will be adjudicated upon at a sub-regional festival, to be held in Victoria on January 27 and 28, instead of passing through an eliminations contest as in previous years. Thus all entrants will have the benefit of playing before the English adjudicator who officiates at the regional festivals right across the Dominion. Heretofore, only the three ranking teams from the eliminations contest have had this privilege.

The decision to make this change was only reached after lengthy and exhaustive discussions between His Honor Judge C. J. Lennox, of Vancouver, regional governor, and representatives of the leading dramatic groups of the city, during the governor's recent visit here. Later, a special meeting of group representatives was called and the matter again thoroughly gone into. Last June a strong recommendation was forwarded from the 1935 eliminations committee and others to the central committee in Ottawa, that some such arrangement be made, as owing to the augmented entrance fee, the added cost of taking three teams to Vancouver was prohibitively expensive for the Victoria and Island teams.

ISLAND ENTRANTS
Under the new arrangements, entrants from Victoria and Up-Island will be adjudicated upon as part of the British Columbia regional, in exactly the same way as teams from the Interior were last year adjudicated upon at Nelson. By this arrangement, a certain amount of expense to individual teams will be eliminated, as, for instance, last year several schoolmasters had to pay substitutes for either one or two days, when their teams were sent forward to Vancouver.

Another important factor this year is the time element. The dates for the British Columbia regional are from January 25 to February 1, inclusive, nearly a fortnight earlier than last year. Had an eliminations contest been held in Victoria, it would have had to be conducted during the first week of January, which would be most unsatisfactory for producers and casts, in order that the details of the winning plays should reach the regional adjudicator by the required date.

THE FEE

Each team appearing before the regional adjudicator must forward $25 to Vancouver, which, in turn, forwards it to Ottawa to help defray the travelling expenses of the teams selected for the finals in that city. The team forwarded from British Columbia this year gets a grant of $500 from this fund for this purpose.

The difference between the $25 which is forwarded in this manner, and the $40 which is required of each team appearing in the Victoria sub-regional festival, is required to defray the expenses of holding this contest. In order to help groups raise this amount, tickets to the value of $40, will be issued to them from the sale of which they may reimburse themselves. If organizations desire to enter more than one team, an entrance fee of $35 per play will be required. In the event of their being more entries than the adjudicator can care for, the sub-regional committee reserves the right to restrict organizations to entering one team only.

PROMISES WELL

There is every indication of one or more entries this year from Up-Island centres.

Of interest to local playwrights is the fact that under the new arrangements, their plays, having appeared before the regional adjudicator, are automatically sent on to Ottawa, where they are eligible for the $100 cash award presented for the best play, judged as a manuscript, written by a person domiciled in Canada and presented during a regional festival.

In order that arrangements may be made for the theatre, and for the general conducting of the Victoria sub-regional festival, the number of entries must be in the hands of the secretary, Stewart Clark, 640 Fort Street, or Captain T. L. Thorpe-Douglas, 1712 Montleith Street, by November 1.

"An Old Sweetheart of Mine" earned royalties for James Whitcomb Riley amounting to $500 for each word. This is said to be the most profitable bit of poetry ever done.

Fireman Called To Save His Own

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 1 (P.).—It was just the routine fire call to Fireman Sweeney at first. He sent Assistant Fire Chief Cassel's car hurtling through Hamilton streets with his usual sang-froid until they pulled up to a stop in front of a service station. It was Sweeney's own car going up in flames and he jumped out in time to drag his own wife from behind the wheel of the car. A short circuit in the ignition caused the fire.

FALL SEASON OF SOCIETY OPENED

Victoria Branch of Dickens Fellowship Inaugurates Its Winter Programme

The first meeting of the Fall season of the Victoria branch of the Dickens Fellowship was held Monday night in the S.P.C.A. clubrooms, Campbell Building.

Members refreshed their memories of Dickens' various characters by answering prepared questions of context. Quotations from Dickens' works were read and the members gave the name of the speaker and the selection from which each quotation was taken.

Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, secretary, read an article, "Scarlet and Gold," by George Shephard, in which the career of Inspector Francis G. Dickens, R.N.W.M.P. officer, was read. He was the third son of the famous novelist.

The work of the Honolulu branch of the society was reviewed by its secretary, Mrs. Arthur Smith. She was accompanied by a fellow Honolulu member, Mrs. Ralph Johnston. G. H. Henderson, former Winnipeg member, outlined the work of that city's branch.

New members welcomed were Mrs. H. D. Wismer, Hubert Cressy, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood, Mrs. H. W. Clowes and Miss Barbara Clowes.

FOOD SCARCITY IN GERMANY FEARED

Housewives Scouring Berlin Stores for Fats, Meats and Fruits—Police on Alert

BERLIN, Oct. 1 (P.).—Scarcity of food, meat and fruit threatened tonight to joggle Germany's economic apparatus.

Household providers scurried from one butter store to another trying to get the news of this ill-starred marriage. "I made plans to come here with all speed. I wanted to set things right," he waved an arm in a gesture of bewilderment, "but how was beyond me."

"When I arrived in Bremen, he went on, 'I saw that you were kind to Lisa, that you seemed genuinely fond of her. After that, I was in a quandary to know what course to pursue. Then today, she drove me too far. And I burst out the thing I have always selfishly, perhaps kept from her.'"

"Pretty late in the day to strike at her like that!" Val commented savagely.

Garenne's face contorted, he pressed a hand against his forehead as if trying to collect his thoughts. "How can I explain? How can I make you understand my side of all this? The fault, of course, is in my door. But it didn't occur to me the girl could grow up so quickly. She was a child the last time I saw her; a school girl. My sister warned me. I must admit, but I trusted at her. Even when she told me that the girl attracted men and that a suitable marriage must be arranged before it was too late. I thought it was only Julia Lee's desire to be free of a burden she had always resented. Besides, I was busily engaged in organizing my latest expedition at that time. And so I did nothing."

He went on pacing nervously up and down as he talked. "My sister, Julia Lee, is a dyed-in-the-wool southerner, intensely proud of the Garenne name. Last autumn, when the son of one of her old friends fell in love with my daughter, she bundled the girl up and brought her to China in the hope that I would be returning from the desert and

STORMY LOVE

A YOUNG NAVY MAN'S ROMANCE

CHAPTER LXVI

Worse things than a wounded ego could happen to a woman—and to a man! Within himself Val must find the strength for both of them. He crossed to his wife and took hold of her limp hands. "You must trust me, Lia," he said earnestly. "I'll take care of you from now on. I promise. You need never fear that anyone will laugh at you. But we aren't going to run away. Right here we stay. With our heads held high, see?" His mouth was grim when he forced himself to say, "Why, this is no great tragedy—that has happened to us. We have something really lasting and fine ahead if we fight to make it so. But I'm not getting out of the Navy. And I'm not selling my invention. Hereinafter, I do not run away from anybody nor anything! Do you understand?" She stared up at him, her face expressionless. "You won't change your mind?"

Her fringed lids lowered abruptly. "Very well," she said. "I'll rest now as you wished. Perhaps I shall even sleep if I am not disturbed."

It hurt like the devil to hear that hopeless note in her voice. He reached the small doll-like figure in its gauzy crimson robe so delectably back into the shadows of the room beyond. The door swung to behind her.

He went back to the desk with a new determination. In his movements, the envelope lay in the circle of light. No need for further delay in placing these plans where they belonged. He leaned forward and scrawled Captain Edding's name across the packet in bold letters.

After that he picked it up and went out the door and along the hallway. As he passed he could hear Stephen Garenne moving nervously about in the living room.

Garenne must wait a little longer to tell his story, Val thought. He emerged from the bungalow and heard "four bells" striking in different tones from the various ships in the yard. Six o'clock, and already almost dark. He peered up to where black clouds scudded across ominously darkening skies. A hot wind, acrid with forest fire smoke, had sprung up from the southeast. A storm was on its way.

He crossed to the office and was glad to see that Dyer was still there. Without more ado he gave the manila envelope into the man's broad hands. Then he stood with a great feeling of relief to watch the awkward figure with its sea-going salt roll off in the direction of Captain Edding's quarters.

Val returned to the house and paused in the kitchen to tell the sleepy Opa she was to leave for the night. Mrs. Preston was not well, he informed her, and wanted no dinner. He would prepare something for both of them when they wished to eat. Meanwhile, Opa was to go at once. Understand, at once! He did not avoid her curious, knowing stare but rather returned it until she hastily lowered her pale eyes. He waited until she had donned her coat and coat and reluctantly closed the outer door behind herself. Then he went on through the hall to the living room where Stephen Garenne waited.

"Now then, sir, I am ready for your explanation," Val said from the doorway.

The tall lean figure standing before the fireplace swung about to face him. "Certainly, Preston, one is due you," Garenne admitted with a shake of his head.

As the older man spoke Val had started across the floor only to be stopped by a noise that seemed to come from the bedroom. He flung open a swift hand for silence. "Did you hear that?" he asked Garenne sharply and made for the closed door.

"For God's sake let the girl stay where she is!" Garenne cried. "It was only the wind you heard. Don't arouse her again, I beg of you. I've had about all I can stand of this."

Val leaned his ear against the panel but heard no further sound. Lia's strength had been heavily taxed and perhaps it was well not to disturb her. But even as he turned away he was goaded by a sense of something amiss, an urge to go back and enter the room.

Garenne's harsh voice diverted him, however. "Believe me, my boy," Garenne said, his dark, hawk-like face intense with warning, "I will never my intention that such an unsuspecting man." He began to pace the floor, his hands clasped behind him, head bent. "As soon as the news of this ill-starred marriage reached me I made plans to come here with all speed. I wanted to set things right," he waved an arm in a gesture of bewilderment, "but how was beyond me."

"When I arrived in Bremen, he went on, 'I saw that you were kind to Lisa, that you seemed genuinely fond of her. After that, I was in a quandary to know what course to pursue. Then today, she drove me too far. And I burst out the thing I have always selfishly, perhaps kept from her.'"
